

SAVE THE DATE

Presentation by Kikkan Randall

Thursday Nov. 14, 5:30-6:30 PM

Hagerty Campus, Traverse City

Kikkan Randall is an Olympic champion cross-country skier, mother of a 3-year old son, cancer survivor, 5-time Olympic games athlete, winner of 17 U.S. National titles and winner of the first ever cross-country skiing gold medal for the U.S. in the women's team sprint in 2018. Kikkan is a brand ambassador and keynote speaker sharing her story to help motivate people to live healthy, active lifestyles and be the best version of themselves.

Thanks to Traverse City's own Mike Wagner, Fischer Sports is sponsoring Kikkan's visit to our community. Kikkan will share her viewpoint on topics such as business, sports and active lifestyles as they relate to perseverance, goal setting, time management and team building.

This special presentation is hosted by Hagerty and will take place on their main campus at 141 Rivers Edge Drive, Traverse City.

Kikkan will be available following her presentation to talk and sign autographs. She will have her "It's Going to be OK!" socks for purchase. Please spread the word about this special event.
